“ Maggie & Maxine,

God truly blessed you with the best! Aunt Gladys was the most sweetest and compassionate person I have ever known. She treated all of her nieces and nephews just like they were her own children with such love and genuiune concern.

I was so thankful that God allowed me to spend countless weekends with her when I lived in Michigan. We loved to go "window shopping" at the boutiques in Southfield. We had our favorite eating spots, Lou's Deli (she always ordered rye bread)and Nikolas. So many precious memories that I will always cherish.

Even though I moved to Nevada in 2007, I still called her regularly and I will miss hearing her say, "I'm doing fine for a young/old lady."

Take comfort in knowing that Aunt Gladys loved God and if we serve and love Him the way she did, we will see her again!

God bless you both!

Your cousin,
