“ Aunt Rita

*Aunt Rita is gone forever.
Her flame has been put out.
I will miss her dearly
She never will quite know.
I will never forget the smile.
Or the bright eyes on her light solemn face. I never will quite know how much she loved me. I thought I was her favorite niece. We fit together like a puzzle. Life isn't the same. And it ain't better. But just the thought of Aunt Rita in a better place, is enough to make a smile appear upon my face.##imported-begin##Katherine and Roderick

“ To my Sister and Friend,

Dear Rita, Not only were you my sister you were my friend. We shared a lot of memories of childhood and adulthood. Our children were raised together. We laughed and even cried together. You were always there for not only myself but the entire family could count on you to keep us connected. I'll remember talking to you on a daily basis and I'll miss you. You meant more to me than words could ever express. I pray for you family and your Husband Charlie. You'll forever be missed. Now you are truly an Angel in Heaven.

*I Love you,
Your Sister

“ Dear Dea. London. It is with great sorrow that I have to write this message away from home and not by your side. As you know I am graduating today at the same time of the service and other than that I would have been here for you and your family. Both my wife and I have very fond memories of Sis. London. Her courage, her spirit, her tenacity, her will and desire to see her health restored and return back to church. I appreciated the weekly progress reports that she always sent me and the faith language that she wrote them with. Sis. London was a strong Christian woman who exemplified to her death patience with her situation and faith that God was going to deliver her, and so He has, in His own way. To her family let me encourage you to read Romans 8:28 not from a personal perspective but from Sis. London's perspective,. She is now in the presence of her blessed Savior whom she loved and respected and I am sure it is without the aid of all of the things that held her down in this life.

Again, Deacon London if there is anything we can do for you when we return please let us know.

Your brother and sister in common ministry,
Pastor Larry Smith & Rev. Linda Smith###imported-begin##Pastor

“ To My Aunt and Godmother,

*Your were and will always be an inspiration to me. I LOVED you , ADORED you, and will always REMEMBER you with that loving smile and glorifying grace. You loved your family and we loved you.
You meant the world to many and now you will forever shine in heaven. With all my love.*
