“ My sincere condolences to the Greenleaf family. May the God of all comfort ease your mind and heart in the days ahead. Jehovah has promised a resurrection of the dead (Acts 24:15) and he promised, the time is coming when: "...death will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry nor pain will be anymore". (Revelation 21:3.4) Gloria and many others will be resurrected to life on a paradise earth soon to be. God cannot lie (Titus 2:1). It's as good as done! Keep His words close to your heart as you treasure the memory of Gloria.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ RIP Jeanie.
I am so grateful I grew up in a time when your neighbors could discipline you; and you did just that. You got on us kids in the neighborhood. And I am a better person for it. I am so glad I got to hug you and let you know how much you meant to our family back in Sept. 09. RIP Jeanie. We love you!###imported-begin##Aaron "Geet" Hightower###imported-end##

“ To my family I wish peace in this moment of sorrow and share the wonderful knowledge that we will see Jeannie again on the other side. We all know just how great she was and her memory will live on in all of you as you cherish the warm smile and tender love she shared with all who knew her. You all have always treated me like family and I love each and everyone of you for that. Love Bren###imported-begin##Brenda Fair###imported-end##

“ May the words of the Lord comfort you in your time of sorrow, for I know that only the Lord can comfort us when he has called a love one home to rest. The word says I will not leave you nor forsake you. Joshue 1:5 Where ever we are, whatever bold endeavor we are involved in, or whatever spiritual battle we may face, we have the confidence that God is with us. What's more, He guides, protects and leads us. He's always on the bridge! My prayers are forever before the Lord for your family.##imported-begin##Sheila Fair Osborn ##imported-end##
