“ The bond that my great, great, aunt and I shared, started through my grandmother, my grandmother and I were very close, she taught me a lot about people, life, and helped me develop the kind of wisdom that you do not get from reading books. My grandmother spent a lot of time talking to her aunt Gussie, and I know she loved and respected her dearly. In 1984 aunt Gussie lost her son and only child, that same year, I lost my grandmother, at this point I think Gussie said to herself, I am going to finish the job that my niece started, and help guide this sixteen year old young man through some of the tough challenges and decisions that life had to offer. At the same time I felt the need to be there for her by maintaining the yard, and fixing whatever broke if I could fix it. Now after hearing that part, you may be thinking, where was his mother at, my mother was always there, providing, teaching, and working hard to give me the best start in life that she could, however Gussie told her that she would have to share, and she adopted me as her own; Gussie usually got her way. It has been an honor to look after, and do whatever I could, for one of the eldest members of our family, who was truly a blessing for our family and all of those she help in the past. She will be greatly missed.

Love, Smokey.##imported-begin##David ##imported-end##

“ First let me thank David, because if it were not for him I would have never met Gussie and I would have missed out on one of the most beautiful people God ever created. Gussie was very very special to me and I LOVED her very much. My family also fell in love with Gussie and when we found out her birthday was the same day as my grandmother and my sister Raquel we fell in love with her even more. Gussie was an original, they'll never be anyone like her. People always say that Gussie was lucky to have us in her life, but that truly went both ways. My heart is heavy with the thought of not seeing her or hearing her voice telling David and I to go home, take care of the baby and get some rest. I thank GOD for giving me the opportunity to do for Gussie what I wasn't able to do for my grandparents. It was truly and honor seeing after Gussie and if I had it to do all over again...I really wouldn't change a thing. The thing that gives me the most comfort right now is the fact that I KNOW that Gussie is going to be looking after me and those who loved her. Gussie Dilworth or as my sister Raquel would call her Gus Gus will be truly missed.###imported-begin##Rhonda Bradwell###imported-end##
