“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Watts family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Gwen was someone who never met a stranger. She was a bright light to all the people around her. I always teased her that she collected people because once you met Gwen, you were in her heart and mind forever. I spent many years working with Gwen and could not find a kinder or more caring person. My sympathies and prayers got to the family. Gwen, I'll meet you in heaven and we will sing a little song, dance a little dance and light the heavens!!!##imported-begin##Laura Moody##imported-end##

“ Extending my deepest sympathy to friends and family. Gwen loved family. Over the years (30+)she frequently spoke of Deuce, Brenda, her niece, and FM. She happily related her courtship with FM. I was so happy for her. I'll miss her laughter.##imported-begin##Pat Howard Jackson##imported-end##
