“ *To my Brother.
I never expectd for this day to come soon for you to leave me.It happened so soon,I find my self asking the question why,I understand why he pick you cause (you were the best brother I ever had that stood by my side.I know there still will be pains in my heart for you, I know I will always shared a tear from eyes knowing that you are gone way from me ,but trully in my heart I do belive that you made it on the other side and " you do not after too suffer any more and I know you are in the hand of Jesues,and one day I will meet you on the other shore.
One thing I can say brother you left behind for me your love and 3 neices and one nephew that I love from the depth of my heart and truly you will be miss by-them along with me.*

“ *I give thanks to all of you who are reading this. My dad was a wonderful, smart,and talented man. He can never be replaced, and it just feel so uplifting to see how many of you had so many good things to say about my daddy. I'm his baby girl and that's just how he treated me...like a baby! I guess that was just his way of always protecting me. My dad made us laugh,he made us cry, he made us mad but,in the end he made us glad. My smart brilliant daddy made his peace with, not only mine, but now his Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ! For this, I am thankful and so very proud of him. I really look forward to seeing him again...I love you so much Daddy###imported-

“ To my Brother Shaheed you will be truly be miss I will only think about the good times we had together and the last day I visit you in the hospital how we laugh together before you went home to be with the lord I going to miss the hearing from you hey pretty girl you always called me baby sis and petty girl.
Brother the sun will shine again, we all know that no matter how many clouds get in the way. the sun keep on shining. no how many times its rays are blocked from our vew, the sun will reappear on another day to shine more brilliantly than before. it take determination to outlast those dark clouds, your sprit will always be with me baby brother you are not dead but your living sprit will be with me I'll think about the good time we had for 66 years togetather.
As you say pretty girl baby sis.

“ Hopefully you will be inspired. Mother your aunt was killed 2 days before 9/11 and daddy junior Ivey died 2/13/2003...Iwent into depression that has caused me to not use the time wisely to connect to my family. Please do not allow this to happen. My Story was published Summer of 2007 in an attempt to survive..call me if you need prayer or strength ...Rochelle-KaRon- and Donnell...Cousin Brenda love you deeply...we are 2 brothers children...let's remain connected ok...

40 WHO?S WHO IN NASHVILLE

It is difficult, if not impossible, to get through a day without encountering terrible news about pain and heartbreak ? the kind that causes us to question ?Where is God?? But the one thing that will lift our spirit is to hear the stories of triumph over adversity. How good people have struggled hard against the odds and come out standing firm on the other side. Brenda Ivey-Robertson is living that story. Many know her as a giver because she always has a smile and encouragement to share with whomever she meets. Robertson is quick to point out that her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ has blessed her richly. But the last few years of her life haven't been easy. Even as recent as a year and a half ago Brenda found herself facing painful challenges ? including a severe depression. ?I fought through the pain and I prayed,? says Robertson. ?I hung on through the tears because I believed God, regardless of what others said.? With sheer grit and a determined faith in God, Robertson fought her way to a fruitful place. Galatians 5:22 is her favorite passage of Scripture ? ?But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law.? As a vintner cuts the grape vine at year-end to encourage the formation of new fruit the following year, Brenda sees her experience as a time of pruning and preparation ?for what God is putting in front of me. I am grateful for the opportunities God continues to give me to share my journey and hopefully, be an encouragement to others.? Like many in Nashville, she sings, she writes, and she works hard as an entrepreneur, running several businesses she has started. You might know her from Fruit of the Spirit Enterprises, an independent gospel music company that Brenda founded in 1984. Over the years she has shared her voice with many all around the world, and mentored other aspiring artists in the process. ?My life is all about ministering to others,? says Robertson. So in her spare time, she also runs All Occasion Elegant Baskets gifts for any occasion, a beauty business focusing on women through Mary Kay, and just recently founded a new catering service that focuses on providing healthy hot foods to businesses who want to offer this benefit to their employees. Preliminary preparations are being made to host a women's conference to share Brenda's story. Watch for details in the next issue of Who's Who in Nashville. Brenda is currently available to sing for Church Concerts, Motivational Speaking, Music Production Consultations, Music Seminars and Complimentary Skin Care Facials. She is also heard on WNSG Radio Station After Church Drive 8.80AM with radio host Tommie Lewis and Dewayne Lewis.

“ The last conversation I had with my uncle is the last September 2007. He was so pleasant and wonderful.. He talked and talked and he talked to me and our elder brother Paul Ivey in Greenwood Mississippi. He sung to us a song he had written. I was so happy that he was even strong enough to talk. He gave us a depth of history about our famil and about our daddy-he called daddy junior, better known as Jordan Ivey Jr. What an impressive way we last spoke. Never to realize his desire to remain independent would take over his common sense to lead to his death in 2 months following my conversation. Although it was my last he was so pleasant and happy to talk to us. It was if the conversation would never end. He look sooo much like daddy. He took me around the Detroit City to introduce me and try hard to get me a recording contract in my earlier years...I better know him as Uncle Leroy and Uncle Donnell...The new name we accept but he will alaways be my precious sweet Uncle Leroy.

Sincerely,

P.S. Thank you Uncle Leroy for the times you shared with me.##imported-begin##Brenda Ivey-Robertson##imported-end##

“ *In the name of God, the Beneficent, the merciful.
This Book, their is no doubt in it, is a guide to those to those who keep their duty,
Who believe in the Unseen and Keep up payer and spend out of what We have given them, And who believe in that which has been revealed to thee and that which was revealed before thee, and of the Hereafter they are sure.
Peace!!!*

*To keep silent when you can say wise and useful is as bad as keep on propagating foolish and unwise thoughts.. I will always remember the days of our gospel singing group, as teenagers.
Great Memory's. "To the family, stay together:##imported-
