“ *To Tim and family, I'm sorry I want be ther with in body, but my sperit and love will. I know it may seem hard for you right now, but just know that God will not put more on you than you can bare. Always know that I am only a phone call away if ever you need to talk. For you say in your word that weeping may endure for a night but Joy will cometh tomorrow. Cherrish the memories of your dear beloved Harriet. Wife, Mother, Sister, Aunt, cousin, friend.
Love and Peace

“ Donna, you and your family have our deepest and heartfelt sympathies.

My mother-in-law died almost five years ago with cancer as well. We are just beginning to be whole again.

My husband is an "only-child" and he took the death quite hard. Of course, I don't know exactly how you feel right now, but I do understand.

May the Love and Peace of God surround you and your family as you begin the healing journey.

God Bless,

“ My Aunt truly was a wonderful woman who impacted my life in an absolutely amazing way. I will miss her a great deal, actually words can't explain how much I will miss her smile, laugh, love and truthfulness. I have peace in knowing that she is not suffering anymore and that she is now with her Savior. The word of God declares that Christ is the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. (John 11:25,26) Aunt Harriette - I will see you soon.###imported-begin##Janene Hawkins###imported-end##
