“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##susan##imported-end##

“ Stephanie & Family,

My deepest & heartfelt sympathy. Though the pain of losing a love one, especially a mother, is very difficult to bear, how blessed you were to have had her for so long. I'm sure you bestowed upon her all the love she was so deserving of. May God bless you all.##imported-begin##Delores Simmons##imported-end##

“ Ninety-five wonderful years. The hardest part in losing Mrs. Lyons is accepting the fact that she can rest until Jesus calls her name in the resurrection. We learn to adjust to our grief. Even though she lived a "good old life". It's not enough, when our Grand Creator intended for us to live forever, in paradise on earth. God is willing to give you the wisdom and strength to help you endure the days ahead. Jesus even wept when he lost his dear friend. Yet, he said, "do not let your heart be troubled". (John 14:27) Jesus says: "I am the resurrection and the life". (John 11:25) May you find comfort and peace in the days ahead as you meditate on the fond memories you have stored in your hearts.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Hattie Lyons was a well respected member of our church. She was always someone that you wanted to be around with her positive, happy personality. She and her husband were an active, imporant couple at St. Paul AME Zion Church. God blessed her with long life and a lovely family. She will long be remembered with great fondness.##imported-begin##Mary Gene Sturkey##imported-end##
