“ To the Jones Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mrs. Hattie. Grandmothers are such special people...so kind, so loving. Their word's of wisdom inspire us to keep to the right path in life. When we lose them to death it's very painful and heartbreaking because death is an enemy to us (1Cor. 15:26). However, our Loving Creator knows how much such ones mean to us and He knows how much your grandmother means to you. That's why He has promised a resurrection for mankind (Acts 24:15) and has assured us through His Word, the Bible that " the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" (John 5:28,29). So, in time, Jehovah God will remember your grandmother, and she will awaken at His command. Yes, that time is yet before us, but it is not far off. What a wonderful time that will be! It is God's promise to us because he cares for us so much for us (1Peter 5:7)and we know He cannot lie (Titus 1:2) May you find much comfort in these Scriptural truths in the days and weeks ahead as I did when I, too, lost my grandmother (2Cor.1:2,3,4) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jonesj##imported-end##

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolence on Mrs. Jones’ death. No matter when a love one leaves they are gone too soon. Death separates family members and it results in deep sorrow.

Please accept my sentiments at this grievous time. Your hearts are sadden. Yet, God is willing to give you the necessary wisdom and strength for recovery. Jesus even wept when he lost his dear friend. (John 11:33, 35) Yet, he said “Do not let your heart be troubled”. (John 14:27)

I did not personally know Mrs. Jones. I read her obituary. What a blessing it will be when we can rightly ask: “Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?”—1 Corinthians 15:55.##imported-begin##Brenda Johnson##imported-end##

“ And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

“ Grandma,

*"Thank you for the gift of love,
now you're sharing it up above.
You had many things to say.
All in a caring way.
You always saw good in everyone,
No matter what they've done.
You were always the one we could all lean on.
Even though it must have felt like a ton.
You were always the strength of the family.
Now we must let you rest calmly.
As we say goodbye,
as tears roll down our eyes.
I know your place in heaven has a good view.
Because you're telling God,
I need to keep an eye on a few.
I know you will always be in our hearts and mind.
So Grandma,
I must go, but I'll never forget you're one of a kind."*

*Love Always,
Stephanie and Stefan###imported-begin##Stephanie
