“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)###imported-begin###Dorothy Boyd-Carroll###imported-end##

“ May the God of all comfort give you the strength you need to endure the days ahead. Death was not what our Grand Creator intended for us - just to live a few years and die. HE created perfect humans and put them in a beautiful paradise. God's purpose will come to fruition. He will help us if we grab hold of his hand and allow his strength to get us up each day. Revelations 21:3-5 and Isaiah 41:10 & 13.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: After the death of his close friend Lazarus the Scriptures says that "Jesus gave way to tears". (John 11:35) Sometimes the grief experienced by family members and friends can be very intense.(Genesis 49:33-50:3) However, our Loving God doesn't want us to be overwhelmed by it. He tells us at 1Thessalonians 4:13 that he doesn't want us to be ignorant concerning those who are sleeping in death; that you may not sorrow just as the rest also do who have no hope. What is that hope? Acts 24:15 answers by saying " And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust". (See also John 5:28,29). Yes, we have the wonderful hope of seeing our precious loved ones again. May your hearts and minds find comfort in God's Word knowing all things will take place exactly as promised by him (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
