“ Minister Wade, and family. My prayers, and my thoughts are with you as you prepare to celebrate your beloved mother's home going. I am so thankful that I had the opportunity to meet her. In the short time that I was in her presence, I saw how proud she was of you and the rest of her family. In the book of John, Jesus said that He was returning to His Father's house to prepare a mansion for all those that believed in Him. Be comforted in knowing that Mother Smith is resting in her brand new home. I'm Home Now I'm in my eternal home now! It's all true! This place is absolutely magnificent. Human words cannot explain it. And I'm so alive, so free, so happy, so perfectly content. I'm home now! My mind is clear, all pain and suffering is gone, my hopes and my dreams were all satisfied the moment my soul left earth's shores and landed here.

Thank God_ I'm home now! There are no misunderstandings in this place! No anger, no harsh words, no hurt feelings, no selfish acts, no problems on my part or that of others. I see plainly here and although God's will was sometimes hard for me to see on earth, here it is beautifully understood.

Praise the Lord_ I'm home now! Sorrow is foreign to this place and I have yet to see anyone weeping. And the friends that I've met, you wouldn't believe. And they seem so different and so gracious. I'll probably spend half of eternity talking to them! I'm home now!

The greatest thrill was to see my Savior face to face! If I could cry I would, but I'm just consumed with such joy and love that it defies comprehension. Mortals on earth cannot know it. It is just unexplainable!

I'm home now! I'm filled with God's glory and with His radiance. I've found that talking to people on earth about Jesus has made the inhabitants of this place extremely delighted.

So I'm home now! If I could speak from this side to your side I would say that the old proverb is never out of date. It goes,

"Only one life, twill soon be past, only what's done for Christ will last."

And in parting let me say, don't ever pity me, or shed bitter tears, I'm better off now than in all my earthly years. I've started my new life and it's been worth it all. I trust I'll meet you again here someday.

I'm home...now! I'm Home!

“ To Minister Wade and Minister Booker,

We send heartfelt condolences on the lost of your mother and grandmother. We are praying that God would continue to give strength to you and your family during this time. May the Joy of the Lord be your strength. God Bless.##imported-begin##Edward and Danette Paige##imported-end##
