“ *Beloved, I am sincerely sorry for your loss, again this year. I pray that you will accept God's comfort and spiritual love. If there is anything you need me to do, rather is to just come and sit, I am willing. On behalf of the rest of my siblings and the memories of being our next door neighbors, we bid Helen farewell, for we shall see her in that great day. We love you, Rosalind, Venny, Gail, Ingy and Izzy, and our families.##imported-begin##Rev. Rosalind Knox -

“ Dear Family: I didn't know your loved one personally, but I do know how it feels to lose someone you love (Psalm 89:48). May you find comfort in knowing too that Mrs. Helen is precious in God's eyes and will not be forgotten by him (Psalm 116:15)Our Loving God has promised us that soon death will be done away with (Isaiah 25:8) and we will have the joy of seeing our dead loved ones again (John 5:28,29). While we await the fulfillment of his word, may you relish in your beautiful memories of her and may you find comfort of mind and heart knowing that all things will take place exactly as promised (2 Cor. 1:3,4; Titus 1:2). Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us. My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Dearest Charles, Doris and Donna....We've loved the Chappell family for nearly 50 years...and continue to do so. We trust that God knows what's best for us...even though we don't always understand...We also know by faith that He loved Helen even more than we do...and so we humbly submit to His plans...We say Amen....We say Rest in Peace...We say that we'll see you again....and we hold on to our precious memories of a kind, soft-spoken, dainty, classy, and loving young lady who meant so much to all of us. The Thomas Family loves you dearly and are here with heart-felt prayers, open arms, listening ears, and lots of hugs. We love you now and always.##imported-begin##Rev. Debra Thomas##imported-end##
