“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: I wish to express my sincere condolences on the loss of your mother and friend. Please know that others, like myself, understand your pain. I, too, lost a beautiful mother some years ago. It is not easy to endure the loss of a loved one, especially a mother, and it can be quite a challenge to move on without them in our lives. Although it may be hard to contemplate or even envision at the present, still our Loving God Jehovah has promised us that soon He will 'wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more'. (Revelation 21:4, Isaiah 25:8) Not only that, but he also promises to resurrect our loved ones who have died, including your precious one, your mother.(John 5:28,29) May these Scriptural truths help to lessen the pain, just a little, in your hearts today and in the days ahead knowing our Father will do all that he has promised. He will not fail us, for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2; Psalm 83:18). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
