“ It can be difficult to describe the feelings we experience, when we lose someone we love so much. Jesus provides comforting words at John 5:28 & 29, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" Revelation 21:3-5, God promises to do away with pain, death and sorrow forever. Luke 23:43 He also said, "You will be with me in paradise". 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14###imported-begin###Mrs. Malone###imported-end###

“ Dear Family: Although I didn't know your loved one, Helen, personally, I can see from her picture that she was truly a beautiful lady! I know it's hard to see and feel beyond the tears, pain and sorrow today, but later, when you are up to it, please read about God's promise of a resurrection for our loved ones who have died. This can be found at John 5:28,29. Also our Loving Creator has promised that soon, 'he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and DEATH will be no more.' Anything that may cause us distress of any kind will be done away with (Revelation 21:4) This is God's promise to us and we know he cannot lie (Titus 1:2) May his purpose to do these things bring comfort to your hearts in the days ahead. My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the McGary family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##ariel##imported-end##

“ Always welcoming, loving and kind. These are the first words that came to mind when I think of your Mom Tim. She always made me feel at home and in her presence the warmth and genuine affection was evident. She obviously loved life and lived it with class which thankfully she passed on to you. Remember the space she held rather than the empty space. I certainly will. Take care my friend.##imported-begin##Ananta Alva##imported-end##
