“ I want to express my heartfelt sympathy for the loss of Mr. Ball. Even though I did not know him personally, Mr. Ball seem to have been a wonderful, well-loved man, who will be truly missed. This is not what Jehovah the God of love wanted for us. We were created to live forever. We are all precious in God's eyes. The bible is the only place we can find true comfort during this difficult time. Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will give you power beyond what is normal to be able to endure this terrible loss. He knows the sorrow you feel. Jehovah God promises, we will be able to see Mr. Ball, very soon on the paradise earth, where death will be no more. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ *My Uncle Sherm!
Often time in life we wonder why God does certain things. It's common to hear folks say, "Just accept it, it's Gods Will!" Well maybe they're correct.
You see my mother(Zandra)was a teenage mother without the support of my father raising a young man with the help of her brothers and parents.
You see in the Ball family we are taught togetherness early. No matter what the situation we have each others back.
You see my uncle always had my back, whatever the situation.
Uncle Sherman had Character, Strengh, Stlye and Godliness.
I could tell story after story, but now I will close by saying, "Uncle Sherm, thanks for the knowledge the kind spirit, love, lessons and most importantly, your time!"
I will always walk with you and Jr. I love you both Soooooooooooooo Much. I hope you knew that, I did!!!!
Your Phew!!!!###imported-begin##Antono Ball###imported-end##*

“ My Fond Memories of “Mr. Sherman Ball”

I remember when I was first introduced to Sherman by my mother (for those of you who may not know her name is Kim). I said to myself now where did she meet this little man at. But before we were formerly introduced my mom and I were on the phone talking and she told me how she had meet this guy at the supermarket who was as short as her(which made her and myself chuckle). But come to find out, this short man was the coolest short man I had ever met. From day one of meeting Sherman we clicked and had a special bond. Not only did he have a special bond with me but he was something special to my MOM and my children. On every occasion that I saw Sherman he would say, “hey Nick (that was my nickname from him) what going on in his cool tone of voice. He was always concerned about his Nick and believe me when I say I was always concerned about Sherman. The last time that I saw Sherman was the week before Christmas when him and my mom came over and I cooked hamburgers and French fries which I through down on. It was true because if u knew Sherman you know Sherman barely eats all of his food but this time Nick fixed it just right because he almost finished it and he was out like a light (you all know how we get that ides). I can go on and on about how Sherman brought so much joy to me and my Mom (which is a plus). I have never met and adored anyone for my mother the way I did Sherman. He was always able to put a smile on her face which made me happy. And he always treated her with the utmost respect. Sherman was that special guy. I’m going to end on this note by saying Sherman was loved by my family and will be missed. So while you’re listening to me Sherman, Nick loves you and you will forever hold a special place in my heart.##imported-begin##Nicole Jones##imported-end##

“ To the family of Sherman: I called him my friend. We knew each other for over 25 years. We lost contact for many years. About five year ago we crossed paths again. The most precious years between us were the last five. We shared our faith, went to Friday and Wednesday bible study, and some Sunday Services together. We would spend hours over the phone just reading and sharing the word of God. His desire to seek God and understand the Bible encouraged me soooo very much. I will miss him tremendously. He loved and talked about his family all the time. Thank you Mr. & Mrs. Ball for such a precious gift of a friend I had in Sherman Lafeve Ball.##imported-begin##Dee-Dee (Idella) Washington##imported-end##

“ My Love, My Love, I thank God for you, some one who was so sweet,so gentle and a smile that lighted up my world.I thank him for the good times that we shared together. There was no doubt in my mind, that we were not the one for each other. We went our separate ways for a short time,but God has a way of uniting two people back together.My heart is so heavy right now,I will continue to treasure you in my heart, my mind, and my soul God is pleased that you excepted him as your savior, now rest from your labor, job well done Sherman.##imported-begin##Kim Gilbert##imported-end##
