“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Clark family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to you during this very difficult time. In future days, as you sit quietly and recall fond memories of your dear one, Icy, may your hearts find comfort and reassurance in knowing that Jehovah God has promised to resurrect persons ‘sleeping in death’ (John 5:28, 29; 11:11-14), to eliminate anything that causes us pain, mourning, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4) and to ultimately destroy death forever (1 Cor. 15:26) Keep all that he has said close to your hearts trusting that it will come to pass, for we know that God cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ When I moved on Cherrylawn, Icy Clark was the first person to reach out to me. She became much more than a neighbor; she was my dear friend, my sister. She appeared to know without question what to say and how to help when needed. I relied on her shoulder and her advice over years and I will miss her dearly.##imported-begin##Cassie Curtis##imported-end##

“ I grew up under the watchful eye of Mrs. Clark. She was like my 2nd mother. I miss sitting on the porch with her giving me advice or just listening to me. She loved kids and would go out of her way for anyone in need.##imported-begin##Asharky Curtis-Little##imported-end##
