“ May the God of all comfort give you the strength you need to endure the days ahead? Death was not what our Grand Creator intended for us - just to live a few years and die. HE created perfect humans and put them in a beautiful paradise. God's purpose will come to fruition. I pray that you will be strengthen, with courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. Throw your burden upon HIM, he cares for you. Even Jesus reassures us, Luke 23:43 - "You will be with me in paradise". There were many Jesus resurrected, while alive on earth. That was a fore gleam of the grand resurrection, soon to be. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##

“ I still find it hard to believe that you are no longer with us but I find comfort in knowing that one day soon, we will all be together once again!

“ My heart is truly broken over the passing of my good friend, Mrs. Sanford. I will miss our conversations, chats at the bank - talking about family, sports and everything "local".

I considered Mrs. Sanford's house a "2nd home" where I was always welcome - and could count on a great meal! Her children were not just my friends -- like her, they were (and are) my family!

To the Sanford family (and my extended family - the Jacksons) - know that my words cannot truly ease your grief. The world has lost a truly good, loving individual, and we know that the world needs more of them. I am typing with tears in my eyes - both for the loss of my friend, and joy that she has attained eternal peace with our Heavenly Father.

May God bring you comfort during this time of loss. Know that our prayers and love are always with you. Don't hesitate to pick up the phone, or stop by if you need a shoulder to cry on, or a listening ear.
