“ Sheila and Raymond-I just wanted you to know how much I love and admired Aunt May. She always made me feel like a warm and welcome member of a truly wonderful family. I am also thankful to her for giving my wife the incentive to maintain a regular fitness routine. She is gone but never forgotten.##imported-begin##Sam Green##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ Ray and Sheila, I am so sorry for your loss. Ida was a friend and colleague. She set a wonderful example for us all with her self-discipline and her non-complaining attitude in the face of great suffering. What an admirable lady. I will miss her. God grant you peace.###imported-begin##Betty Cammarata##imported-end##

“ Ida was not only a wonderful colleague, she was a dear friend. Ida was an exemplary model of peaceable, composed professionalism and, if I had to use only one word to describe her it would be 'Lady' - she was a lady in every sense of the word. We were all so very blessed to know Ida. She fought valiantly, never complaining, never giving up her faith - what an inspiration and example of gentle strength! I'm looking so forward to seeing her again on the other side of heaven! I know exactly where to find her, right next to Jesus as His Executive Assistant !###imported-begin##Brenda Penuel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: I wish to extend my sincere condolences to the Armstrong family on the loss of their loved one, Mrs. Ida May. Although I didn't know her personally, I can still certainly relate to loosing a loved one, for death has made its presence known to all of us (Psalm 89:48) May you draw comfort from God's word the Bible when it says: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out.." (John 5:28) God will then "wipe out every tear from their eyes, and DEATH will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry nor pain be anymore..." (Revelation 21:4) May you find comfort, hope and healing in His words knowing this will soon be our delightful experience for Jehovah God (Psalm 83:18) has promised it, and we know he cannot lie! (Titus 1:2, Isaiah 55:9,10) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I would like to offer my deepest condolences to the family of Mrs. Armstrong. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose a dear loved one in death. I have found comfort in God's word the Bible and scriptures at at John 5:28, 29 and Revelation 21:3,4. These scriptures have comforted my family and I during these times and I hope they will comfort your family as well.##imported-begin##Anita##imported-end##

“Ida and I were both Co-op students while in our senior year of high school. When she got her first car, we rode downtown together daily until she married. I remember Ida as a very likeable, very industrious, and very decent person. She was tiny in size but she had great inner strength. My life was blessed by knowing her.##imported-begin##Loretta Smith##imported-end##

“My Lovely Aunt "May" as we called her. She showed such great courage and strength during her journey throughout the years that I always admired. Although I never told her, she gave me the inspiration that started my fitness routine. I always thought if I could look like her as I got older I needed to follow in her foot steps. She was truly a wonderful woman that will be greatly missed. Love you May...Wanda##imported-begin##Wanda Green##imported-end##
