“ to the Caffey Family: may I please offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, and my sister, Sis Caffery. Although I didn't know her personally, I couldn't help but think what a wonderful privilege she had to be here over a century...special mightiness, indeed!! Now she sleeps in the memory of our Loving God and we know that, in due time, she will awaken at His command. A life well spent in Jehovah's service and a rich reward awaiting her. Even so, I know that your heart aches now because you love and miss her, but Jehovah's promises to bring her back shortly will help you to endure now and will comfort you continuously in the days ahead. We know he is the God of truth that will do all that he has promised (Titus 1:2) May Jehovah calm your hearts and minds by means of his Word, family, and our brothers and sisters. My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of our dear sister shows "the special mightiness" she had. The bible tells us that, no matter what age, "death does have a sting." But, we can be encouraged, because soon that sting will be gone. Jesus tells us that, all those in the memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out. Jesus always told the truth. That will be a wonderful time, when we will see Sis. Caffey again. That is what she looked forward to. Certainly, we want to be there an welcome her back. Our God Jehovah is truly a God of comfort and not the cause of such pain. Our prayers are with you and the family. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz Bowman##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss; Regardless of age how old or young it is always davasting when we lose a love one to death. May find comfort from close family,friends and most of all God because he care for you. 1 Peter 5:7, the Bible is the only place we can find true comfort durin this difficult time.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
