“ *To the Brown Family,
I'm very sorry for the death that you've experienced in your family recently. I've just been sharing a comforting scripture with you and similar individuals who have lost dear loved ones in death. John 11:25 says... "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life."
I also agree with the bible when it says at Acts 24:15... that there will be a resurrection, of both the righteous and unrighteous!
My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.. please know that I' am thinking of you and your family during this hardship.
Thank you for your time,
Sincerely,

“ May your hearts be comforted during this difficult time I pray that our Grand Creator give you the strength needed to endure the days ahead. He is the God of all comfort. At John 5:28-29 Jesus says, “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” Trust in Jehovah with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding; he is the one who created us and knows our DNA to bring us back to life. It's as good as done! Keep His words close to your heart as you treasure the memory of Mr. Brown.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ To Mr. Sidney Brown family and friends. I would like to extend my deepest condolence for your loss. I didn't know Mr. Brown personally. but I do understand the pain of loosing a loved one to death. May you find comfort in the hope held out in the Scriptures, it come from a Loving Father who "cannot lie" so all he promises will come true, and He promises to do away with "DEATH FOREVER" (Revelation 21:4)##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson+##imported-end##
