“ To the Hampton Family: Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your mother, Mrs. Inell. Mother's are very special people, and although I didn't know your mother personally, I'm sure she was a beautiful woman. Death at any age is an enemy of mankind because it robs us of those whom we love sooo dearly. Thankfully, our Loving Creator has already made provisions to put an end to death forever! (1Cor. 15:26) And just think: if death could hold us forever in its bonds it would be stronger than God, wouldn't it? Surely, death is no match for the All-Powerful Source of life! (Psalm 36:9) Rest assured that God really cares for you and He knows how much your mother means to you. In the days ahead as you recall cherished memories of your mother, rest assured that she is in God's memory too. That's why he promised us at John 5:28,29 that "the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out". Our Loving Creator will remember your mother and she will awaken at His command. Yes, that time is yet before us, but it is not far off. That is God's promise to us (Acts 24:15) Take comfort in His Word knowing how much he cares for you (1Peter 5:7) and knowing too, that He cannot lie (Titus 1:2) All that He has promised...He will do. May you find much comfort in these Scriptural truths in the days and weeks ahead as I did when I, too, lost my mother (2 Cor. 1:2,3,4) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To My Cousins,

God bless you and know that others care and share your sorrow. Inell has gone where the wicked shall cease from troubling and the weary shall be at rest. She lived and she loved her children and I pray that the love that she shared for each of you will live on in your hearts and minds forever.

Love,

“ To the Hampton family

God's gift of time

we all need a time to grieve quiet time for reflection to sift through memories and come to grips with what has happend. We all need a time for tears, not for the one who is now at peace in heaven, but for ourselves as we realize that things will never be the same. We all need a time to just "be" when we can open ourselves to God and let the reassurance of His everlasting love start to heal our broken hearts. Wishing Peace to all.

Love always James, Theresa, O'Shelia, Melissa, Stephen, James Jr. and Jessie O'Steen###imported-begin## James & Theresa O'Steen And Family###imported-end##

“ My fondest memories of your Mom is when we were all little. She'd come over with all of you. We'd all go outside and play and our Mom's would drink their coffee in the kitchen and yap and laugh for hours. Just know, all those that felt her love, were truly blessed. My sincerest and deepest sympathy.###imported-begin## Maria Sanchez-Ledesma###imported-end##
