“ Jeff & the Families, I am so sorry to hear this news. I know it has been a very long time since I've had the chance to connect with you. I didn't have the opportunity to meet your wife but I'm sure she was a wonderful woman because she married an outstanding man. You were on my heart today and I decided to look you up and now I know why. You are in my prayers always and remember, you are more than a conqueror through Jesus Christ who loves you!!!! Keep your head up!###imported-begin###Lisa Cain (fka Brown)###imported-end##

“ I am truly sadden to hear about the lost of your wife. I had the opportunity of meeting her when she came to my studio. She had a wonderful personality and a beautiful modern dancer. The pain of lossing someone you love will never go away, you just learn how to with that lost. She will always be with you, when you need her the most. May you find comfort in our Lord Jesus Christ.

God Bless You!

“ I'm very saddened by the death of Ingrid. I'm praying for the family. May God comfort and bless the family during their time of grief. May the goodness that Ingrid brought to so many be remembered today and furthermore.

I always remembered Ingrid as a very nice and kind person. While I have not seen Ingrid in many years, over the years I have often thought about her and Monique and Elaine. As a child, I witnessed the wonderful bond and love Elaine had with her daughters and they with her. My childhood is filled with many fond moments with Ingrid, including Monique. A memory that I won't forget is as a kid I always enjoyed music and especially loved to dance. I remember many of days dancing on the Lyles' back porch with Ingrid and my sister Chrissy. We'd make-up dance routines and then practice our dance routines (Ingrid would always bring out the record player...). We had so much fun as kids--a remember a lot of laughs. The few years we lived on that block back so many years ago were truly some of my best childhood memories and Ingrid was a great part of those memories. Thank God for those wonderful childhood memories and thank God for Ingrid. I will truly miss her but will cherish those hot summer days, frigid winter days, cool spring days, beautiful fall days that I shared with Ingrid many years ago as a kid laughing and having good old fashion fun.

*From an old friend who will miss a dear friend,
