“ Aunt Rene was my rock in so many ways. I was preparing to visit her this week but, God had other plans. I feel sad because it feels like I didn't do it soon enough. I only have one Aunt left now. I gave all of them their flowers while they lived. I have the most beautiful picture of all of them taken 2 years ago. Us spending time together that day made my heart happy. Rest in peace Aunt Rene. I'll see you again. I'll always love and miss you. Youe loving niece, Donna-Fox Scott

“ I am sending my sincerest and best wishes of love and sympathy to the Woodard, Newsome, Springer and Turner families. I only discovered the information of Irene's passing while viewing this web page today. I was surprised and somewhat saddened in finding out that Irene had passed, but I have confidence that she is with her maker. She often testified of her love and devotion to the Lord Jesus. May God continue to bless and strengthen you "Dinky" and your family.

With love,

“ Hello Auntie and Uncle, we are so sorry to hear about your lost and our prayers are with the whole family. Thank you uncle for keeping the family in Boston informed. We LOVE you all and if there is anything, anything at all, we are a call away. Auntie like I said when we talked last night I will not hesitate to get on that train or the Grayhound.

Just say the word. May God comfort you and let you know that your mother is home and at peace. She will always be there watching over you and the family. (Your Special Angel.)

Love Always

“ Dear Cleo and Woodard Family;

Our hearts were truly saddened to hear of the victorious home going of our dear sister and friend Mrs. Irene Woodard.

Your mother was strong, and bounteous woman. Over the years Irene has humbled herself and cared for others as the Lord would have her to do.

Many will say that they know how you feel or they'll be a mother for you. But we only have one mother and when you have done all that you could, there is nothing to feel sad about.

Cleo I praise you and how you cared for you mother in her later years as she cared for you in your youth.

As the young people say Irene is rolling with the big dogs now. We will surly miss Irene's love and compassion.

If we can do anything for you please feel free to let me know you have my telephone number.

Love
