“ Dear Rita, Guy, Troy and the Howard Family:
We were sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. While she worshiped with us in Atlanta, she persevered and served on the Usher Board and participated in the Seniors Ministry. Now God has called her home where she can worship Him forevermore. We pray that God will keep you and comfort your hearts during this time of bereavement. Remember that God will sustain and keep you in the days to come. Just cast your cares on Him.
With heartfelt sympathy,

“ Ms.Isabelle came in my life in 1999 at caring unlimited adult day care.I can truly say I met a real lady.as our friendship began to grow.we shared percious moments together.one time i lightly stepped on her toe.she told me I'm going to break your left hip (smile).the most important thing i learned from her. Is PRAYER. she said to me one day with force give it to god and leave it there! he will work it out, he will give you peace and comfort.with those words i made it though my moms death and everyday life.##imported-begin##Twana Person##imported-end##

“ Pam and family, our deepest sympathies are with you at your time of sorrow. No one can say or do the right things to comfort you at this time because it's so unnatural for us to experience the loss of loved ones. Please take comfort in the God of all comfort and know soon he will wipe all tears from our eyes and death, sorrow and pain will be a thing of the past- Rev. 21:3,4.###imported-begin###Simone(monie)&The Floyd Family###imported-end##

“ Rita, Lo, Pam, and spouses,

I will truly miss my Aunt Isabelle and that big smile of hers. I am saddened that my family and I will not be able to attend the services and be there with you during this difficult time.

Our prayers are with you and your families and we love you.
