“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ Dear Burton family, Please accept my condolences over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Jacqueline. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he stated at (Job 14:14)“If an able body man dies, can he live again...” This is a hope that has been promised in the bible by God, and it is a hope that is held out to Ms. Jacqueline. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Jesus provides comforting words at John 5:28 & 29 "All those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out . . . and Revelation 21:3-5, God promises to do away with pain, death and sorrow forever. (John 11:25) "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life". Psalm 34:1 "Our Grand Creator is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." These are not idle words of Jesus. Prayer is real communication with Our Grand Creator.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
