“ Dear Family: After the death of his close friend Lazarus the Scriptures say that "Jesus gave way to tears". (John 11:35) Even though Jesus knew he was about to resurrect his dear friend to life again, he still gave way to grief and tears for the loss of his loved one. Sometimes the grief experienced by family members and friends can also be very intense.(Genesis 49:33-50:3) However, our Loving God Jehovah doesn't want us to be overwhelmed by it. He tells us at 1Thessalonians 4:13 that he doesn't want us to be ignorant concerning those who are sleeping in death; that you may not sorrow just as the rest also do who have no hope. What is that hope? Acts 24:15 answers by saying: " And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust". Yes, we have the assured hope of seeing our precious loved ones again. Jesus performed the miracle of resurrection and others too, and had it all recorded in the Bible for our benefit to show us and teach us that resurrection is, indeed, possible, an assured expectation, so that we would put faith in his Word (John 5:28, 29; Hebrews 11:1). May your hearts and minds find comfort today and in the days ahead knowing God's Word of Truth will take place exactly as promised by him (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###
