“ Please accept my letter of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Janice Delois Mashatt, At this time of your life. I know that the only words you want to hear are those that encouraging and can help you get through this sad time. Hopefully this scripture will do just that (rev 21:4) this scripture says that soon death will be no more, no pain, and nothing that can make us upset. God loves Janice and wants you to see her in the future.##imported-begin##Kelynn Salley##imported-end##

“ *Dear Mashatt family,
Please accept this post as an expression of my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Janice. The bibles clear teachings removes all confusion about what happens to us at death. The scriptures plainly show that death is the "enemy" that will be destroyed by God. (Please read 1Corinthians 15:26) This scripture show the love and compassion that god has for us. What comfort and strength we can draw from the knowledge of the resurrection hope! May the god of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##*

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Mashatt family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to the family. As you continue to deal with your loss, I hope you can find comfort in knowing that God will sustain you. (Psalms 55:22)Jehovah God is near those that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he save. (Psalms 34:18) May the God of tender mercies and all comfort give you all the strength you need to endure.##imported-begin##Valerie##imported-end##
