“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more....." May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he "cannot lie." (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Ward family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Mrs. Jeldine was certainly privileged with the gift of longevity (Psalm 90:10), and she had such a pretty smile. Even so, I know your heart still breaks because the enemy, death, has separated you from your loved one (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is how our Loving God Jehovah feels too! That's why at Isaiah 25:8 he promises to wipe out the tears from our eyes as he swallows up the enemy, death, forever! At John 5:28,29 God's son, Jesus, tells us that he will call and the dead will answer him as he proceeds to resurrect many who are 'sleeping' in death.(John 11:11-14) What a joy it will be when mankind will be able to live out his days, here on earth, the way our loving God Jehovah originally intended: “even life forever more.” (Psalm 133:3, Psalm 37:29) May your hearts find comfort and reassurance from God, for he does not lie!(Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##Joyce Jones##imported-end##
