“ Dear Thomas family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Jessie Mae. I am writing to share with you the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14)"If an able body man dies, can he live again..."This hope is held out to a mankind, including Ms. Jessie Mae. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ *To the family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Did you know the bible gives the hope of death not occurring on this earth anymore? At Revelation 21:4 it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." If you would like to know more about this hope, talk to any Jehovah's Witness that you reach. I will keep you in my prayers##imported-begin##Brenda Jones##imported-end##*

“ Dear Family: What a privilege you had to have had Mrs. Jessie Mae with you for many years of your life! She was truly blessed with what the Scriptures call 'special mightiness'. (Psalm 90:10). Still, no matter how old our loved ones come to be, no matter how long they live, we are NEVER ready to say 'farewell' to them. This is because death is not natural for us; it's unacceptable to us, because we were created to live, not die! (Psalm 148:5, 6, Ecc.3:11) And, now that very Source of life, Jehovah God (Psalm 36:9), has purposed that soon death will be done away with...'swallowed up forever' (Isaiah 25:8) Our loved ones who have died shall be called forth from the very depths of the earth (graves) to life again (John 5:28, 29). Never to die again, no, but to live out their days forever in radiant health (Isaiah 33:24) and abundant peace (Psalm 37:10, 11) as citizens of God's cleansed earth. (Psalm 115:16; Psalm 37:29) That we should ALL live that way is God's purpose (Isaiah 45:18) and it shall indeed come to pass (Revelation 21:3,4,5) May your hearts find comfort in knowing that all things will take place exactly as promised by him. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
