“ Well honestly granny I don't know how many years it's been now and I try to forget everyday Which is hard you died 2 months after my first child was born that made me so angry to not have you in my life But it always made me who I am now Grandma nobody could every love me the way you did nobody could hold me the way you did But I smile just because I know you watching I hope your proud of me and I hope that I continue to make you happy I love you to the moon and back

“ Granny...

It's been almost 13 yrs since you left us but it still feels like it was recent. There were a lot of things that I never got to say to you that I should have but I guess my mindset was still young. I never told you I love you often or to say thank you for raising me to be a good man that I am. For years I regret not helping you with things around the house to keep your health slightly better than it was but i let go of that regret because you wouldn't want me to do that. It's been yrs granny but I still cry and I know I always will! I'll never forget you ever, you were my grandma, my mother, and I would have never made it with you. I love you always granny and please... watch over me and tell Greg I said i love him too I guess :)

Your Grandson/son..... Travis
