“ With Deepest Sympathy: The people we love on in our hearts. It takes a long time to get used to the loss of someone we love. But it's important to remember that when people die they leave something very special behind. They leave us memories of the things they said and did. And as long as we have theses memories the people we love will live on in our hearts and minds. Rev.21:4 helps us to see that God will wipe out every tear form eyes and death will be no more.##imported-begin##Geneva Humphrey McClendon##imported-end##

“ Dear

I did not know your loved one personally, but that did not stop me from wanting to offer my sympathy, and let you know you are not alone. We all have been touched by death at one time or another and need comfort during this time.

The Bible offer such comfort at Rev.21:3,4 Please read it. . I hope it will bring you some comfort to you and your family in the coming years. I hope you will accept my heart-felt condolence.##imported-begin##Deborah Richardson##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to the Ward family. Aunt Juanita was such a fun and outgoing person. She was more of a sister when I was a teen. I will miss you Aunt Juanita.

“ Juanita was married to my late Uncle James Young. She was a very fun person who loved to laugh. That was the beauty of her. Things didn't get her down and in some cases make you forget your problems. She will be missed.##imported-begin##Lorren Tony Knight##imported-end##

“ *Juanita was my God Mother. Even though we didn't talk over the years or I didn't see her, I remember as a little girl spending a lot of time with her daughters and her son. I even injured myself at her home and have a scar to remember. Ever since I found out about her illness, I prayed for her every morning when I arose. Now I know she is in a better place--with our maker--and is not suffering from this ugly disease we call cancer. I, now, pray for her beautiful children and grandchildren that they find some bit of comfort knowing people all over the United States are praying for them and thinking of them often. Love you guys!
