“ I am so sorry for your loss. I send prayers and thoughts of comfort at this difficult time of loss. Soon, God's promised kingdom will bring an end to all badness and "death will be no more" (Revelation 21:3,4). At that time, our grief and sorrow will give way to the joy of happy reunion with our dear ones. may those words give you courage and strength to face the coming days.##imported-begin##Jeanne##imported-end##

“ Dear Bennett family please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one Ms. Katie Della. I am writing to you about the wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The bibles clear teachings tells us what happens to us at the time of death. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he said at (Job14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, and it is also held out to MS. Katie Della. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more....." May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he "cannot lie." (Titus1:2)###imported-begin###Dorothy Carroll###imported-end##
