“ *Dear Henry and Family,
I will truly miss Laura. Since I met the two of you at the Spaulding Family reunion in Atlanta GA in 2000, a friendship has developed over the years. Laura was my shopping buddy at the reunions and family meetings, I will miss our shopping adventures and her words of wisdom. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Lynette V. “ Dear Henry and family,

It was with great sadness that we learned today of your precious wife, Laura's passing. Tom and I are keeping you and your family in our prayers at this very difficult time. It is never easy to lose a precious loved one, but knowing that you will one day see her again gives you hope for the future. My the Lord grant you His peace that passes all understanding as well as the strength to endure. Please know that we are thinking of you and lifting you up in fervant prayer. “ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Horne family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I'm forwarding my heartfelt sympathy to Horne family: We have all experienced the loss of a loved one to the enemy death, and the emotional pain is all the same. Our hearts break as we see our love ones, get sick, grow old and die. These are some Scriptures, I found comforting: Job 14:14, 15; John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15; Isaiah 25:8; and Revelation 21:4. By examining these scriptures, it builds our confidence that those who fall asleep in death, can live again. Death itself will be done away with forever. You may wonder, Why do we get sick and die? What happens to us when we die? Where will the dead be resurrected, or will i ever see my loved one again? To find the satisfying answers to these questions, please feel free to visit our website: www.watchtower.org. I hope that those Scriptures bring comfort to you, as it does for me.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
