“ Dear Merideth and Family,
I know the pain in losing a Mom. There's no love like it! Trust and believe that she's smiling her beautiful smile with her "heavenly" friends and most of all, God! Her devotion in service to her family and church will never be forgotten. I know it was rare to see you in church without her. God's love and mercy will continue to strenghten you each day. Blessings to you and your family during this time and always.
"Be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest." - Joshua 1:9
Sincerely,
Pat, Patrice and Larry Brown, Jr.##imported-begin##Pat Swan-Brown & Family##imported-end##

“ I was secretary to Mrs. Williams at Children's Aid Society from 1978 to 1983. My mother, Threades White, did housework for Mrs. Williams when she lived on Northlawn. Mrs. Williams was always a joy to be around. We especially enjoyed her hearty laugh! We would like to offer our sincere sympathy in the death of your mother, Laura Williams.

“ I remember Mrs Williams from Sturtevant street. I played with all three girls but was closer in age to Janet. Mrs Williams would give me the girls out grown clothes. She was always thinking of others.##imported-begin##Dedra Olden Pickens##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Williams was a kind and caring lady. I first met her at Fellowship Chapel, at that time, located on W. McNichols. She and her daughter Merideth always sat in the pew in front of myself, my Mom, and my Sister at the church. She would always share warm hugs and kind words at Sunday worship service.

May her soul rest in peace!

*God Bless!
