“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ *I send my deepest sympathy to the family of Lenetta Dorsey. May you sense the comfort of our heavenly Father during this time of loss. Lenetta will never have to experience death or suffering again and the best is truly yet to come, for He promises: "the meek ones shall possess the earth and reside forever upon it, and they will find the exquisite delight in the abundanc of peace." “ My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family . I pray that God strenghtenens and keeps you all during your time of bereavement. Always remember to look to the hills from whence cometh your help, all your help cometh from the Lord!

God Bless,

“ To the Dorsey Family: Please accept my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mrs. Lenetta. Death, at any age, is an enemy because it robs families of their loved ones and leaves them with unspeakable pain and sorrow. Rest assured that our Loving Creator cares for us very much (1 Peter 5:7) and has, therefore, promised that he will (very soon) destroy death forever! (1Corinthians 15:26). In the meantime, may you take comfort in this Scriptural hope and also in the promise that "...the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out..."(John 5:28,29) Yes, God has promised a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died (John 11:26, Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
