“ I'm writing because I am terribly sorry about your loss, I know that at this time no one truly knows the exact pain your feeling now except God he gave his only first born son to die for us. He watch his only perfect son die for people he had not yet met imperfect people. No doubt that was a very hard thing to deal with. Just like it is for the Allen family and all of their close friends. God promises no one will ever have to feel this type of pain ever again. If you have a bible with you or when you get a change please read Revelation 21:4.may the God of tender mercy continue to be with you.##imported-begin##Kelynn salley##imported-end##

“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear family of MRS. LEOLA ALLEN: I am so sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. Death is such a hard thing to deal with especially when it is someone we needed so much in our lives. Because there will be difficult times ahead, God, Jehovah gives those who are grieving, comfort and peace of heart, and peace of mind (Psalms 9:9, Philipians 4:6,7). He has also given those who have lost loved ones to the "enemy" death a wonderful hope of seeing them again (1st Corinthians 15:26). It is a beautiful promise found in the Bible at Isaiah 26:19 and Revelation 21: 4,5. May this encourage your hearts and help carry you through the coming days ahead. You have my sincere condolences and sympathies, as well as best wishes to the family.##imported-begin##J. Jackson##imported-end##

“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

“ With deepest sympathy. I am truly sorry for your loss. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness we feel at difficult times like this. Please know that during distressing times such as these we have someone to turn to who not only hears us but can also bring solace to us. “This afflicted one called, and Jehovah himself heard. And out of all his distresses He saved him.” (Psalms 34:6). Not only does he help us but he also gives us hope for the future. ““Jesus said: “I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all. Do you believe this?” (John 11: 25, 26). You can rest assured that the Bible promises for the future of our loved ones will come true! Numbers 23:19##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: It breaks our hearts when death separates us from our loved ones no matter how young or how old they may happen to be. However, we are reminded in the Bible that there is One who sees our distress and pain and has promised (soon) death will be done away with...swallowed up forever! (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again. (John 5:28, 29) I hope in the days ahead as you reflect on the life of your loved one, Leola, and the precious memories she left you, that you will also find much comfort in Jehovah God's promises to us for the near future, for they will not fail to come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
