“ To the Stewart Family: Please, may I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mrs. Lessie Mae. What a wonderful privilege she had to be here nearly a century! Even so, the Bible book of James, chapter 4, verse 17 (in part) tells us that we 'are a mist appearing for a little while and then disappearing. This is because death, ultimately will over take us and no human can 'provide escape for his soul from the hand of "Sheol' or 'Hades', mankind's common grave. (Psalm 89:48) However, Psalm 36:9 teaches us that Jehovah God is the Source of Life and He will provide escape for us from the grave by means of a resurrection (Acts 24:15) He has promised that 'the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out (John 5:28,29). His purpose is to restore our dead loved ones to life, where they will live, not for a short while, but forever...the way he intended it to be (Psalm 37:11,29) free from sickness, death, pain and sorrow. (Revelation 21:4) May God's decision to bring this about, comfort to your heart, knowing he cares for you dearly and, therefore, will do all that he has promised (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
