“ Dear Family, While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ to the family: I would like to express my sincere condolence for the of your loved one. May you find comfort, during this time of mourning in persistent prayers as, "the peace of God that excels all thought will guard your heart and all your mental powers." (Philippians 4:7) I certainly hope that in knowing that God care will make a difference at this difficult time. You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Lehman. It's most difficult to find words to comfort someone who has lost a dear one in death. Inside our hearts hurt too. May you find consolation in your family and friends who love you, surround you and share your grief at this time. And, above all, may Jehovah's God's promise of a coming resurrection and life without end bring comfort to your hearts today and in the days ahead. (John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:29). My deepest sympathy to you##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
