“ To my Ms Emma and Family, God sent his only Son into the world that death shall be no more. When we find ourselves on this journey, it reminds us how the Lord of the Universe must have felt as He stood beside the cross of his dying Son.

Death is a very unwelcome visitor to our world. God on the days of creation said that “it was good”. During those days, death was not to be found, only the promise of life for eternity with our creator.

I am so glad to read what God has promised us in I Corinthians 16:51-55. Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal [must] put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where [is] thy sting? O grave, where [is] thy victory?

My Ms Emma, I look forward to the day of victory. I will see you there.

Love Always Your
