“ Linda, thanks for being such a kind and thoughtful person. Thank you for letting me into your home , on many occasions for parties and social gatherings and treating me like a little brother, as you did with my friend, your brother, Conrad. Missed your home going , but have you in my heart forever, Peace, Herman Lewis###imported-begin##Herman Lewis###imported-end##

“ Long ago, each school day morning, I would walk down the street to the building where my friends lived. Then we would all walk to Angell Elementary together.

Later, they would move away...oh no, now, who would I walk with, talk with...who would watch Phil Donahue with me?

I would still go by the building, to pick up Gloria, and walk her to school. Her big cousin ,Linda, had asked if I would do that.

Then one day, good news...Linda's family had moved back to Detroit!

Nothing but fond memories of a sweet childhood friend, and a very capable friend and nurse at my mother's bedside.

Love,

Patsy###imported-begin##Patsy Elmore ###imported-end##

“ My dear sweet Pillow family. I want to let you know what Linda means to me. After being away from bedside Nursing for 20 years I was anxious to say the least, not to mention learning ICU Nursing. Linda was assigned to be my preceptor. I can wholeheartedly say that Linda is the best 'teacher' that I have EVER had. In the stressful ICU Linda made everything seem so doable. She was so calming and thorough. I could honestly go on and on about her skills. She will always be part of my 'I can't believe I did it'success story. For that and all her pleasant & always supportive smiles, I am forever grateful. May our sweet Lord Bless you all at this very difficult time. Love to Linda always. My prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Sandy (Henson) Denny RN##imported-end##

“ Elaine - I am so sorry to read of the loss of your dearest sister, Linda. Even though looking at photos and videos may be difficult, do it any way. It will help you to heal. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God Jehovah promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28-29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when ‘death and pain will be no more’. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time, and may you receive the comfort you need to endure the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ My sister,
We used to head for the border and spend time relaxing on our off days. You became my best friend and there is no replacement. I miss you so much. We had our moments that was just special to us. You inspired me in ways that you will never know. I love you my sister and you should still be here with me. I can not replace my best friend, but I feel comfort in having you for the time I did. Love always##imported-begin##Elaine Thompson##imported-end##

“ We never get a chance to tell someone how we feel about them while they are here. Then when their gone, you think of all of the things you could have said or done differently while they were here. Now,I really wish I had the chance to have more of a relationship with you. Yet, I look back on the memories I do have of you. You will be truly missed and I know you are in a better place.
