“ Mrs. Woolwine was a part of my children's life and mine. She was their teacher at the public school in Laytonsville Maryland. She was a quiet serious teacher who loved her calling as a teacher. I have been in her school room so many times I can't even put a number on it . Mrs. Turner was the Principle then and I was the PTA president.

“ Twyla,
I know this is a very difficult time for you and your family, however please take some comfort in knowing that the love we had for your mother extends to you as well.

There are no words to take away the pain, I can only refer you to the best source of relief and that is the love of GOD; read your mother's favorite scripture and take comfort in those words by asking GOD to instill them in your heart and reveal the true meaning of this psalm.

With love,##imported-begin##Betty Mills##imported-end##

“ Dear Twyla and family,
To say what shocking news is an understatement. My heart, as well as so many others, has truly been heavy these last few days. I also met your Mom while decorating the church at Fellowship. We shared good laughs, stories, etc. Her smile will always be in our hearts. Matthews 4:6 "He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone." There are many around you that love you and are here to guard and protect you and your baby. Lean on them when they call. God sends angels in all forms and fashions. Our prayers are with you now and always. God bless you in your quest for strength.

“ Twyla and family,

My name is Joyce Jones and I'm Charlene Hawkins sister and I live in Atlanta. I had the pleasure of meeting Linda on various occasions years ago and she was indeed a warm and friendly person. I had cancer 3 years ago and when my sister told Linda about it, Linda asked if there was anything she could do and she called frequently to check up on me. You must have strength and faith at this time, especially for your daughter. Your family is on our prayer list at my job and I'm keeping you in my thoughts and prayers. You don't remember, but I met you when you were very young and you were very georgeous and had the prettiest long hair ever. If you ever need anyone to talk to, my number is 770 592-9405. “ Twyla, your mom hired me to work as part of the AAA Travel Director Team eight years ago, and we always shared a warm, honest and true friendship. Someday, I would like to share some funny stories with you, but in the meantime, I wanted you to know that I explained an old, Polish-Catholic custom to her one time when she was praying for her mother's health. That custom is "lighting a candle". The custom says that the smoke from the candle carries your prayers to heaven faster. My mom is a very devout Catholic, and would frequently light a small votive candle for special intentions. Over the years, your mom would ask if a candle could be lit for specific intentions that she had, and my mom would gladly comply. Many times, when I knew your mom had a lot on her plate, I would light a candle on her behalf. And now, I just wanted to let you and Jocelyn know, that I will be lighting two candles - one for you, and one for Jocelyn. You are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Sandy Acquaro##imported-end##

“ Dear Twyla. My heart goes out to you during this very difficult and sad time. I have so many things I want to say about your wonderful Mother as a co-worker, boss and friend that I could go on for a long time. She was a special person who touched the hearts of so many people. I know she touched mine. She was full of laughter, she was thoughtful, humorous, sensitive and the list goes on. I am so glad that we spent time together on my last visit to Michigan. We had such a wonderful time. I will miss her so much but one day I will see her again. God has a plan for all of us and we know that one day we will be called home. Sometimes it's when we least expect it. May God comfort you in this time of sorrow and may you gain strength from his everlasting word.##imported-begin##Judy Winters & Phil Ludos##imported-end##

“ Twyla,
I've been thinking long & hard about what to say & how to say it... and for a long time was at a loss of words. But I decided that I would just speak from the heart and express myself. First of all, let me start off by saying that as I've said before, without a doubt our Prayers are with you & Jocelyn. God has given me/us Strength beyond all comparison at our times of trial and while I know He has done this for you in the past ... He will Again now & forever. I know that your family has experienced sadness & hurt in the past (even recently with the passing of your father) However God gave you peace, strength, endurance and comfort then as He will now. Your Mom & my Mom had been close for years but I just started getting closer to your Mom within the last few years before & after the birth of Sidney. I found that ALL the wonderful things that I had heard about your Mom were so true & then some --She was an Awesome & a Great Inspiration. She didn't know it but I was starting to look at her as a mentor. She has touched Will, Sidney & I and we will truly Miss her. I'll talk with you soon,,, Love, “ God, Your word says, 'You are a very present help in times of trouble...' Twyla and Family needs Your help right now, for this is a time of trouble for them. Please let Your Presence become very real to them.

I ask that you would lift the heaviness of their heart, and that You would bear their burden of sorrow and begin to exchange it for peace and hope. Father, shower them with unexpected tokens of Your love, so they would know how much You really do care.

God, we do not understand suffering, but we are grateful that You have promised to be with us in the midst of it. Let Your words be a comfort to my friends in this time of tears.
