“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Linda'a passing. I knewe Linda from St. Christopher's - St. Paul's Church. She was a beautiful person - and I loved her handwriting style - she wrote with such flair and style. I know your are in a better place free of diseese and pain. My sympathies to Jack and family. A great loss.##imported-begin##Thomas Taepke##imported-end##

“ To Robert & Family,

A few weeks ago my family lost a loved one, my sister Denise... all the condolences in the word cannot heal, only sooth, it's about Jesus if you believe, and your faith in general.

I ask you keep going on, it gets better with time, and please know God still has a plan for you, for all of us, it is NOT over!

God bless you all,

Aj.##imported-begin##Ashley Jordan##imported-end##

“ To Robert and Family,

I am sorry for your lost. My prayers go out to you and your family. The Lord only knows why he do what he does, its not up to us to understand.

Robert I am here for you. If you just want to talk or what ever makes you feel better to get through the hard times. I have a listening ear.

Love Regina

P.S. friends for ever##imported-begin##Regina Brown##imported-end##

“ A song comes to my mind when I think of how to console the Arnold/Hunter Family. The title of that song is "All Things Come from God". How can such a song be comforting? Doesn't such a song make one mad at God? How can an all-loving, all-knowing God impose so much pain?

The comfort is in knowing that Linda is now free from pain. She remained brave and strong during her mother's illness and passing. She fought as long and as hard as she could. Today, Linda has rest from her battle. She faced one more fear with courage. Unselfishly, altruistically, we now must let her go to the next world, but we need not perceive that she lost the war against cancer. As long as her soul lives on, she won, and we along with her.

The Belle Family, long time neighbors of Linda's brother Robert, pray that the Arnold Family will discover the truth that underlies the hymn, "Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal."###imported-begin###Anita & Thelma Belle and Family###imported-end##

“"The world is so full of care and sorrow that it is a gracious debt we owe to one another to discover the bright crystals of delight hidden in somber circumstances and irksome tasks."

H. Keller

*Linda,
The wind has taken you
You're free, finally at peace
So still You lie
Leaving your cares behind*

*The pain is gone
Gone with the spirit in your eyes
Now you're wandering around
Above us
Looking downward
As we cry.*

*You've flown into the Wind
Escaping all the hurt within
Took to the Sky
Leaving this Earthly world behind.*

Rest Forever Safe and Well remembered in Our hearts, Our minds and in Our Prayers

“ You both have two great women in the right place working to protect your back. So move on briskly as they would have wanted you to do and as Linda did from the time I met her and her mom as an 18 year old freshman at CMU.

This is still a day the Lord hath made. Between Him and those two they will be opening all kinds of windows especially for you

Brandon. So go for it!###imported-begin###norman johnson###imported-end##

“ *To All Members of the Hunter and Arnold Families,
Our heartfelt sympathies go out to each and every one of you on the loss of your loved one. Linda was a dear friend. One that I have known since our days together in college and a person that will always be very special to me. May you be comforted now knowing that she is at peace and in a better place.*

Yours in spirit.
