“ *Dear Karen, Pat, Cecilia, Lolita, Ken, and husband, family, and relatives of Lisa Tolliver-Howard:
Please accept our deepest sympathies in the passing of our beloved Lisa. I just learned of this on this past Saturday, April 4, 2009. I am in shock and disbelief but deeply regret not knowing. Certainly, we would have supported your family as you have always supported and loved us. I can only imagine the grief you bear and the loss you all probably feel even today but our hope is that our prayers and thoughts will strengthen and sustain you throughout your berevment. “ To the family of Lisa Howard, I had not seen or spoken to Lisa in years but she always remained in my heart, she was such a sweet person and I was honored to have known her when we worked at the Galleria building for AT&T. I'm really sorry, I just found out about the funeral this morning or I would have surely attended.

Lisa will truly be missed by all in our hearts.

“ Dear Cecelia,
It is so very hard to lose a sister, for a sister walks the early steps of life in a path that is closely intertwined with our own, and therefore shares our memories in a unique way. Please know that in God's memory and God's life, nothing and no one can ever be forgotten. God's love and God's memory is forever.

God bless you.
