“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##sf##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: No words can express nor heal the pain I know you feel. Mother's are such special people and when they leave us, it leaves a hole in our hearts that we cannot heal. But our Loving Father has promised to heal that wound for us by resurrecting our loved ones from death (John 5:28,29). He also promises that in the near future 'He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry nor pain be anymore. (Revelation 21:4). Please take comfort in God's promises to us, as I have, over the years since I lost my mother. Rest in the assurance that Jehovah God will do ALL that he has promised. (Isaiah 55:11) He will not fail us for He cannot lie (Titus 1:2). My Deepest Sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To my family... I love you guys more than words can say. I truly know how you feel during this time, and Nana will be missed! It's such a sad, yet happy time, because you know she is with her husband and all of the family members before her. She is at peace, and you will be at peace in your memories and love.##imported-begin##Kelley##imported-end##

“ Maryls and family, I hope you savor all the great memories of your mother and continue to make her proud. We will never forget her pleasant personality, beautiful smile and, of course, her singing voice. May God wrap his arms around you and your family as you travel through these difficult days ahead. We always looked forward to seeing Aunt Lois at all of the family gathering. She had such a gentle loving heart. I will never forget the sparkle in her eyes and the smile on her face when she last saw Willie. She couldn't say much but it brought such a smile. Aunt Lois, rest in peace and when you see my Dad and your brother, kiss him on the cheek for me and tell him I miss him. Heavenly together. Love your niece,
