“ I am so sorry Neil, I had been calling Lois for a while and hadn't heard from her. I'm just finding out today about her. I am truly sorry. She was one of my oldest dearest friends and will be truly missed.

You and your family have my deepest prayers.

“ To the Murchison Family my heart goes out to you at this time. I will miss her smile and soft spoken voice I am still in disbelief but I know that God knows best. God saw she was getting tired, When a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped his arms around her,
and whispered, "come to me."
she didn't deserve what she went through, So He gave her rest.
God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best
And when I saw her sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain I could not wish her back To suffer that again.##imported-begin##Laura Morris##imported-end## “ Neil, I am so sorry to hear of Lois's passing.

What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We may not understand why Lois left us so soon, or why we may not have gotten the chance to say good-bye, but little by little, we will begin to remember not just that she died, but that she lived. And her life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. May the love of those around you help you through the days ahead. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
Sincerely, Odessa Jackson##imported-begin##Odessa Jackson##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Murchison family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ To the family of Lois, I know that your heart is heavy, but remember she is resting peacefully in God's arms. The angels came and pick their beautiful flower and placed her in the garden of heaven. Just hold on to God's unchanging hand for he will see you thru this time of sadness.

“ To the family of Lois Ann Murchison,
I am so sorry for your loss. Would you like to see your dead loved one again? Thinking about reuniting with one who has passed may seem farfetched. However, the bible gives hope to those who have lost loved ones in death. At Revelation 21:4 it says “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” I hope this could provide a small measure of comfort to you. If you have any more questions, feel free to ask any one of Jehovah’s Witness. I will keep you in my prayers.##imported-begin##Brenda Jones##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are extended to you at this time of loss. Please take comfort in the love and support from friends and family. Never miss an opportunity to tell your loved ones what they truly mean to you. May you find peace and comfort knowing Mrs. Murchinson is not suffering. I hope the happier memories of her life help you endure the days ahead. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14, John 5:28 & 29, 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
