“ Barbara,
I'm sorry to hear of your mother's passing. I met her only once at your County "retirement" lunch at Buddy's. She surprised you when she and her friends joined us all. We had a nice talk. She was very friendly. We're thinking of you - those of us still hanging on here at the County.

“ Good Morning Barbara,

You may not actually access this until later but Andy and I would like to express our condolences for your mom's passing. Living past 100 years itself speaks volume for the love care and enriching experiences she must have had along the way. You and your family are also blessed to have had her with you for the greater portion of your lives.

May God bless and give you peace.###imported-begin###Loretta and Andy Brown###imported-end##
