“ Dear Kaye, Nita, Queenie and Sheree. I have thought of Miss Bass everyday since I heard the news and so many memories of her are on my mind. Hearing her laughter through the windows of our house, her ever smiling face. Her too smooth dance steps, hearing her sing HAVE YOU SEEN HER with my mother and Uncle Mark. So many memories. My favorite is one that I have kept to myself. One weekend, my mother, Miss Bass, Daria and I drove up to Michigan State to visit Sheree. On the way back, I was tired and tried to sleep in the car, uncomfortably. Miss Bass told me to lay my head on her lap then she pat my hair as I fell asleep. I thought then, as I do now, what a wonderful mother she was. Her heart was big enough for her kids, and for the rest of the neighborhood kids, too. I now know that it does take a village and I am thankful that Miss Bass was apart of mine. She has touched all of us. She can't be replaced and won't be forgotten. My heart and sympathy goes out to all of you and your children and families. Love, Cister###imported-begin###Cheryl Thomas###imported-end###

“ Kaye, Nita, Queenie, Sheree

I have been thinking about the time 40 years ago when our families first became neighbors and the friendship that developed between our Moms. Forefront in those memories from then to the present is your Mom, Mrs.Bass, a lady I grew to love. I truly don't think there is anyone who could have met her and not fallen in love with her. She is proof that God's blessings comes through others. I think in my heart I had adopted her as a second Mom. I keep thinking of the many conversations we would have over the fence while we worked in the yard. It seemed that once we began talking, time would just pass and we may not have gotten a lot of yard work done but I would always, always walk away feeling as if I had accomplished so much more. I had been blessed to have been in the company of your Mom. When I think of her there are so many words which could so aptly describe her, classy, gracious, elegant, and on and on. But the one that always comes to mind is "MOTHER" and all that it encompasses. She would talk about you all with so much love and pride. You, her daughters, are evidence of what a wonderful mother she is. You have been so blessed, as you said Kaye, for the many years you had her. I will always remember her warm smile, her beautiful laugh, and cherish just having known her. "Thank you, Mrs.Bass, for being the wonderful woman you were. I love you and will never forget you".##imported-begin##Tricy##imported-end##

I'm just reading the comments left when Mom passed. She loved unconditionally. Thank you for your memories.

“ Mom, all I can say is "well done" oh good and faithful servant. Thank you for all the wisdom and love you imparted to me and the Agape Fellowship Church Family as the Elder Mothers' Board Memeber over the years, and for accepting me personally as an intricate part of the "Bass" Family. I will love you always, see you in the rapture!

Eternally Yours,
