The wise man Job expressed it this way when he said at (Job 14:14)" If an able body man dies, can he live again..." “ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear.
Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”
May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.”

“ Words cannot express the grief we feel when we lose our loved ones. My heart and deepest sympathy goes out to the Andrews family. Jesus says, "Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth-they that have done good, unto a resurrection of life."-John 5:28,29. May you find comfort through the Word of God.###imported-begin##Mrs. C###imported-end##
