“ Dear

I did not know your loved one personally, but that did not stop me from wanting to offer my sympathy, and let you know you are not alone. We all have been touched by death at one time or another and need comfort during this time.

The Bible offer such comfort at Isaiah 25: 8 Please read it. . I hope it will bring you some comfort to you and your family in the coming years. I hope you will accept my heart-felt condolence.##imported-begin##Deborah Richardson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family,
Losing someone we love is never easy to accept, and sometimes it must seem as if the pain is too much to bear. But I believe that your love will outlast the pain of the grief you are feeling... I believe that you have a place deep in your heart where treasured memories will always live. And one day those memories will be a tremendous comfort to you. God will comfort you in his own loving way.##imported-begin##Jean Knowles##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I extend my sincere condolences to you on the death of your loved one, Loretta. May the God of all comfort, comfort you in your time of grief. Often we wish we could take the pain away, but we recognize that we are limited. (Psalms 49:7) So I pray that God grants you his peace that excels all thought and may he guard your heart until the day comes when he wipes all tears away and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3,4). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
