“ To the Gaston Family: Please accept my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, your mother. Death, at any age, is devastating, that's because death is an enemy of mankind and it takes away those we love, those so special to us, and it leaves us crushed at heart with tears and pain. Thankfully, our Loving Creator has promised that He will destroy death forever (1Cor. 15:26) and, also, that the time is coming when, very soon now, He (God) will wipe out every tear from our eyes and DEATH will be no more! (Revelation 21:4) In the days and weeks ahead, as your recall and cherish the memories of your dear mother, rest assured that she is in God's memory too; and that very soon, He will remember your mother and she will awaken at his command. (John 5:28,29) That is God's promise to us because he loves us so much and because he meant that man should live, not die. He understands how much seeing our loved ones again means to us. (1Peter 5:7, Acts 24:15). May you take comfort from His Word, the Bible, knowing that it comes from the God of Truth who will do just as He has promised (Titus 1:2; Psalm 119:160) My Deepest Sympathy.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Benjamin and family,

Our prayers are with you at this time. We extend our deepest sympathy to you. Although words of sorrow can not take away the pain. Here's hoping that it helps in easing it. May God give you strength and may the loving memories you have of Louise help to sustain you.

Look to the hills from which cometh your help. Your help cometh from the Lord.

“ Auntie was one of the greatest aunts and will always be in my heart. Her endearing spirit will be missed by many.

Wishing you Faith - a warm feeling inside you that God hears each word when you pray.

Wishing you Courage - that fills you with strength when a challenge is coming your way.

Wishing you Hope - that will lighten your heart and will help see you through, day by day.

Peace Be With You.

Love Always,
